INTRODUCING 10DAYSPAIDFDVLEAVE.COM.AU

A one-stop shop to help small business owners and their employees understand paid family and violence leave entitlements.

ABOUT 10DAYSPAIDFDVLEAVE.COM.AU

10DaysPaidFDVLeave.com.au is designed to help small business employers and their employees navigate paid family and domestic violence leave entitlements.

On this site, you'll find everything from essential information to practical tips and conversation simulations to help you navigate difficult conversations.

Designed specifically for small business

For many in small businesses, resources and time can be scarce. It can be hard to find time in the day to find the information you need.

10DaysPaidFDVLeave.com.au takes the hard work out, putting all the key information for small business and workers in one place.

This leave is good for workers, good for business, and has the potential to be life-changing, or life-saving.

WHAT THE SITE OFFERS

We know people in small business have a lot going on, so we've made the site as simple to navigate as possible. We've broken it down into:

.....
What you need to do – actions employers need to take to meet their FDV leave obligations.
.....

What you need to know – the information employers need to understand their obligations
.....

.....
What else is good to do – best practice resource to help employers support their people.
.....

.....
Support services and resources – employee resources and practical pathways to support.
.....
